Numb. 4049

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday Auguſt 28. to Thursday Auguſt 31. 1704.

Windſor, Auguſt 30.

THE following Addreſs was preſented this day to Her Majeſty by the Rev. Dr. William Grahme, one of the Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Durham.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Clergy of this Dioceſe, having been already Provincially Repreſented to Your Majeſty with moſt Humble Acknowledgments of Your Pious Care and Compaſſion towards the Poorer ſort of Your Clergy; do now again humbly beg Leave, in a Particular manner, to Addreſs our Thankfulneſs for Your Charitable Augmentation of their Maintenance.

And it is yet greater Joy and Encouragement to us, that Your Own Inclinations for Supporting this Church of England, wherein You have been happily Educated, will induce Your Majeſty chiefly to Countenance thoſe, who for their Principles as well as Poverty, are the Trueſt Objects of Your Favour.

That Your Majeſty's Reign over us may be Long and Proſperous; That You may Live even to ſee this Your Royal Bounty and Benefaction compleatly Enjoy'd by thoſe for whom You have thus Graciouſly deſigned it, is the hearty Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects.

The Addreſs which follows was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Mayor, Bayliffs, and ſeveral of the Burgeſſes of Windſor, accompanied by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Fitzharding, and Richard Topham Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Conſtable of the Caſtle of Windſor.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bayliffs and Burgeſſes, Gentlemen and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of New-Windſor in the County of Berks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, having a juſt Senſe of the great Benefit we enjoy under Your Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign; do in all humble manner beg Leave to Congratulate the Glorious Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms, under the Valiant and Wiſe Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough.

May ſuch Victories conſtantly attend the Juſtice of that Cauſe, in which Your Majeſty and Your Allies are engaged; That You may at length be able to ſet due Limits to the Ambition of France, and give ſuch a Peace to Europe; as not only we Your Majeſty's Subjects may be long happy under the Juſtice and Clemency of Your Reign, but that the Proteſtant Religion, and the Laws and Liberties of England, may be ſecured to our utmoſt Poſterity, under a laſting Succeſſion of Proteſtant Princes.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

Ratisbon, Aug. 18. General Herbeville came about 10 days ago before Beyerſhoff, and ſummoned the Governor to ſurrender, who refuſing to do it, the General began to batter that Place the 11th Inſtant, at 5 in the morning; About 8 he made a general Aſſault, and by 10 was Maſter of the Place. Part of the Gariſon was put to the Sword; but after the firſt Fury of our Soldiers was over, they gave Quarter to the Governor and the reſt of his Men, who remain Priſoners of War. The next day General Herbeville ſent a Detachment to Donauſtauf, another Town belonging to the Elector of Bavaria, which immediately ſurrendred. The 15th he came hither, and took Poſſeſſion of our Gate and Bridge over the Danube, and of our two Gates towards the Country; the Bavarian Forces which had lain here ſeveral Months, in order to keep the Imperial Diet in awe, being retired ſome days before, upon the Arrival in theſe Parts of the Confederate Forces under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough. The ſame day Te Deum was ſung here for the late Glorious Victory over the French and Bavarian Armies near Bleinheim, and for our Deliverance from their Power. The General intends to leave a Regiment of the Forces of Heſſe and another of thoſe of Pruſſia in Gariſon here, and to march to morrow with the reſt of his Troops to attack Straubingen.

Falmouth, Auguſt 26. Two Dutch Privateers ſailed hence the 23d Inſtant to cruize.
